COUNT DRACULA

Jonathan Harker, a young English solicitor, travels east to sell a London house to a Transylvanian nobleman — and finds himself a prisoner in the castle. In England, a ship drives into Whitby harbour in a storm with no living soul aboard, and Lucy Westenra begins to walk in her sleep.

Volume One of two: Books I and II, chapters I–XVI of Bram Stoker’s novel of 1897, painted scene by scene, and read aloud by a cast drawn from the Amenti Library of Legends — every chapter one scan away.
